JUDGE LOVETT MEANS BUSINESS.

Spokane, Wash. Nov. 29.—Robert Soit Lovett, chairman of the executive counittees of the Union Pacific and the feathern Pacific Railway companies, who is making a tour of the north-set with a party of officials of both roads, announced in a visit to Spokane hat millions of dollars will be expended in extending the Harriman system a Washington and into central Oregon. a Washington and into central Oregon, to that the Deschutes canyon in Ore-ta will be traversed by its lines, re-felless of the activities of the Hill lit. Lovett added that every acre of feritory that is legitimately in the districts tributary to the Harriman lines will be developed, saying also that improvements and extensions planned by Harriman will be completed. Mr. Lovett said that he believes the country is in a good way to better and more substantial commercial development, though he would not forecast an era of renewed presperty in any special line. However, he marveled at the progress, of which he saw avidences, in all industries in the northwest, saying there is the Skin of the Sufferer.

When the skin of an eczema sufferer itches and burns in untold agony, do you know what is going on within the pores of that skin?

Myriads of microscopic animals are grawing at the flesh, breaking down the fine cells and causing festers, thick scales and that terrible litch. The germs multiply faster than Nature can throw them off.

Now, there is only one way to get hid of these germs—they must be hidded in their lodging places. Dosing he stomach, or trying to cure the hidded will not, of course, kill the terms, and that is why all the blood can do no permanent good.

LOVETT'S LEGAL LEGATEE.

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—That W. F. Herrin, head of the legal department of the Southern Pacific company, can be chief counsel of the entire Harriman system if he wants the position, was the statement made today by Judge Robert S. Lovett, successor to the late E. H. Harriman. Judge Lovett stat-ed, however, that he did not think Herin will consider the place that is open Judge Lovett is on an inspection tour and arrived here today, accompanied by a staff of railroad men, including J. C. Stubbs, traffic director: Julius Krutt-schnitt, director of maintenance and ways; E. O. McCormick, assistant traf-fic director, and C. C. Stillman of New York.

The party will start eastward next Wednesday, going direct to New York via Ogden and Chicago. Another man in the line of succession to the legal head of the Harriman lines is Henry W. deForest of New York, Mr. Harriman's personal and trusted legal adviser, and who is now on the Union Pacific directory.

FREIGHT RATES REDUCED.

It was given out last evening from the Sait Lake Route offices that on and after Dec. 2, freight rates would be reduced to Los Angeles from all Utah common points, as follows: First class, $1.87½ to $1.54; second class, $1.61 to $1.31; third class, $1.31 to $1.15; fourth class, $1.09 to 96 cents; fifth class, 94 cents to 78½ cents; A rate, 82½ cents to 78½ cents; B rate, 69 cents to 62 cents; C rate, 61½ cents to 56 cents; D rate, 54 cents to 38 cents; E rate, 46 cents to

LOCOMOTIVE DELIVERIES.

Probably the mose remarkable loco-motive order in the history of rail-roads is being delivered to the South-ern Pacific, It consists of 33 freight en-gines of the Mallet compound type. Twenty-one of these are of the same size as two which are now at work on the mountain division of the Southern the mountain division of the Southern Pacific. These engines weigh 300 tons and arg. in fact, two locometives in one. A peculiar fact is that some of the railroads between the eastern works and the western destination refused to haul them over their tracks, fearing both for the tracks and the bridges. Despite this fact, the Southern Pacific ordered 20 locomotives of this kind and weight, knowing that they were not especially hard on track. Each of the monsters

RECEIVING LOCOMOTIVES.

The Missouri Pacific is daily receiving new locomotives, the delivery of an order for 30, which was placed last an order for 30, which was placed last spring. These engines are all designed for freight traffic and are available for service on any portion of the Missouri Pactific-Iron Mountain system. The deliveries are being made at St. Louis and from this point the engines are being distributed over the system wherever needed. The new locomotives are larger than any freight engines now in service on the system and will prove a valuable addition in handling the winter shipments of grains, which are now commencing.

LOOKS BACK FIFTY YEARS.

Handcart Company in 1856.

Fifty-three years ago today the surviving members of the Martin and viving members of the Martin and Tyler handcart company were brought into this city from Devil's Gate, Wyoming, by the rescue party sent out by President Brigham Young, who adjourned the conference, in session at the time the reports from the ill-fated company were received, in order to send out the rescuers. The handcart company, which was the last company to arrive in the first year of handcart immigration, came into the valley at nooh on Sunday, Nov. 36, just as the congregations were being dismissed from church services. There was great joy in the valley upon their arrival, as the reports received indicated that few of the party would eyer reach the valleys alive. The company started its journey westward in September and, as the winter came on very early that year, were caught in snow in the mountains several hundred miles away from this city. The original party consisted of 600 persons and of this number over one-third perished from cold and hunger. Of the surviving members of this party there are perhaps less than 100. One of them, S. S. Jones, former mayor of Provo, recalled today the incident of the arrival in Sait Lake. His description of it, as he remembers it, was a comparison to the awakening from a Rip Van Winkle sleep, but he said that there were no dogs there, and if there had been they would have been useless, for none of the party was strong enough to stand long enough to fire one. Tyler handcart company were brought

HOW TO KILL THE SALOON.

Starve Them Out. General Superintendent Sommiers of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company has returned from several weeks' absence along the Idaho and Montana lines. Mr. Sommers reports the closing up of 29 saloons in one week, at Butte. It seems mining operations are not as lively in that section as they used to be, and the more discerning of the men, scenting even further slack work ahead, are curtailing their saloon expenditures so much that there is a steady string of these places going out of business. There have not been any labor union troubles for a long time.
